

Music Scholarship

The Music School includes a recital hall with two Steinway grand pianos, an ICT suite with 15 Apple Macs, seven teaching/practice rooms with Yamaha and Boston pianos, and well-resourced facilities for Music Technology, including a recording studio. Large-scale events are held in the Boyd Campbell Hall and in other local concert venues, including the Ryan Theatre, Harrow School Speech Room and St. Mary's Church, Harrow on the Hill. Organists have access to the three-manual pipe organ in St Mary's Parish Church. As a musician you will be invited to perform on overseas tours which in recent years have included Italy, Austria and the United States of America.

A Music Scholar will:

 - Offer a second instrument and/or be able and willing to sing.
 - Have been awarded high marks in formal music examinations.
 - Have been involved in musical activities such as orchestras, bands or choirs.
 - At 13+, the instrumental standard is Grade 5/6 and to be working towards, or have passed, Grade 5 Theory of Music.
- A Music Scholar at The John Lyon School will be expected to:
 - Be fully involved in the extra-curricular musical activities, both instrumental and choral, at the Director of Music's discretion.
 - Be prepared to study GCSE Music.
 - There will be the option at 6th form to study A level music.
 - Be prepared to offer a number of solo performances each year and to contribute to House Music events.
 - To perform regularly in year group and whole school assemblies.
 - Demonstrate appropriate progress by maintaining regular practice.
 - Set an example to other pupils through involvement in musical activities.
 - To attend music lessons on a weekly basis.
 - Meet the Director of Music annually to review progress.
